

Career and Research Talks

ISEE AWPC Webinar

International Society for Environmental Epidemiology - Asia and Western Pacific Chapter

We invite guest speakers in environmental epidemiology and urban health to talk about their career paths and share their new research findings.

The aim of the Career and Research Talks is to regularly connect ISEE AWPC members and inspire early and mid-career researchers in environmental epidemiology.

ISEE AWPC's Career and Research Talks is initiated and organised by Xiaoqi Feng (UNSW, Sydney) with support from Shu-Li Julie Wang (NHRI, Taiwan), Atsuko Araki (CEHS, Hokudai), Wei Jie Seow (NUS, Singapore), Shaowei Wu (PKU, Beijing) in the ISEE AWPC Education Committee.

Guest Speaker: Dr Marco Martuzzi

14.00 – 15.30pm (GMT+8) including Q&A, Thursday 26 November 2020

(14.00 -15.30pm Beijing Time / 15.00 – 16.30pm Seoul Time / 17.00 – 18.30pm Sydney Time)

Seminar will be available by Microsoft Teams Link and will be recorded

Marco Martuzzi is the Head of the Asia-Pacific Centre for Environment and Health of the World Health Organization Regional Office for the Western Pacific. He is an epidemiologist with experience in environmental and occupational studies.

We will have an interview style career talk with Marco in the first 30mins, followed by his presentation on Making environmental epidemiology research most policy-relevant and then Q&A with the audience.

He previously worked at the Italian Institute of Health, the London School of Hygiene and Tropical Medicine, the Imperial College School of Medicine (UK), the WHO International Agency for Research on Cancer (France), and at the WHO European Centre for Environment and Health, in Bonn, Germany. He obtained a PhD in community medicine from the University of London, in 1996. His current work is concerned with the impacts of environmental risk factors and determinants on health and health equity, with a view to addressing the pressing challenges of the Anthropocene, such as climate and ecosystems breakdown.
